Againſt the Coachmens Bill.

THE Scope of the Bill is to veſt a Power in the Commiſſioners for the time being, to inquire into the whole Proceedings of the firſt Commiſſioners; and to undo, at their pleaſure, any thing the former Commiſſioners did. (viz.)

To take Licence, or Licences, from ſuch, as they ſhall think were not qualified by the Act for Licencing the 700 Hackney Coaches.

Which Act was for raiſing a Supply for his Majeſty, and whoever paid 50 l. for a Licence, is well intitled to the ſame for 21 Years; and by the direct Letter of the Act, may Sell, and diſpoſe the ſame, as a Chattel.

And accordingly theſe Licences have been Sold and Transferr'd through 5, 6, or 7 ſeveral Hands, and are now worth to be Sold 130 l.

Wherefore, It's humbly preſum'd, this Honourable Houſe will not diveſt ſo many Purchaſers, who have purchaſed under an Engliſh Act of Parliament, of their Property.
